The Canadian Sunroom Manufacturers Association is a member driven trade association dedicated to the advancement of the manufacture and construction of safe, energy efficient and environmentally conscious, code compliant sunrooms, patio rooms and solariums. The mandate of the Canadian Sunroom Manufacturers Association is to provide a unified voice for the Canadian sunroom manufacturing industry, in order to accomplish the following:

- To provide an effective lobby for the sunroom industry with governments
- To develop programs to increase the retail recognition of sunrooms
- To present a positive image of the sunroom manufacturing industry
- To develop standards for the sunroom industry
- To provide a forum where the members of the sunroom manufacturing industry can freely meet and openly discuss ideas and issues of interest or concern to members

We are writing to you now to ask you to consider joining CSMA as a Dealer Member. A Dealer member is any company that represents one of the general members and that is engaged in the retail sales of sunrooms. If you wish to become a member you will need to submit a signed written copy of the attached application, together with the applicable membership fee. Please note that as a special offer the membership fee will be waived in your first year of membership!

As a member of CSMA you will help shape the future of the sunroom industry. The association is working on developing standards for the industry and periodically surveys Dealer members and non-members on specific trends and issues facing the sector. The statistical analysis of these surveys are put to use in CSMA's lobbying initiatives to assure that the best codes and practices are put into place for the sunroom industry and consumers as a whole.

Benefits of Membership in CSMA include the following:

- Access to a cohesive voice in the development and review of existing codes and practices for the industry
- Information on and participation in lobby efforts related to the sunroom industry
- Part of a community of like-minded peers / Networking opportunities
- Education in the issues, trends, and developments affecting the industry

Becoming a member of the CSMA is a real opportunity to join a community of like-minded individuals that share your interest in a strong and vibrant sunroom industry.

Thank you for your interest in the CSMA and we look forward to counting you amongst our membership!

Sincerely,

Wayne Glover, CAE
General Manager
